PERSONAL MENTION

P. S. Stanley, of Tekoa, is in the city today on business.

A. B. Stephens of Umatilla is in the city today on business.

Abe Miller, the well known pioneer of Pilot Rock, is a visitor today.

Joseph N. Owenhouse returned this morning from a trip to The Dalles.

Mrs. E. J. Michael, of Irrigon, is in the city today a guest of Hotel Bickera.

A. Kunkel has just returned from a business trip to Lewiston and Tekoa.

T. P. Davies, a prominent Walla Walla real estate dealer, is in Pendleton today.

G. W. and W. T. Rigby left for Echo this morning on a brief business visit.

Nells J. Brown, of North Yakima, has arrived to enter the Pendleton Business College.

T. H. Bloom, of La Grande, is a guest of Hotel St. George today, while on a business trip to the city.

Jacob Betz, the well known brewer, of Tacoma, is a guest of Hotel St. George, while in the city on a brief business.

Mrs. Caroline Hexter, of Portland, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Max Baer, for a month, left for her home this morning.

Charles Hamilton, O. R. & N. switchman, is suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism, and his place on the yard force is vacant for a few days.

Mrs. John Vert, who has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis, is rapidly improving and will soon be fully recovered if complications do not arise.

Tim Donovan, O. R. & N. lineman, is in the city looking over the Western Union and O. R. & N. offices. The lines are now all in first-class condition for winter.

Jeff Brown, a prominent Adams farmer, was in Pendleton last night on his way to Walla Walla, where he makes his residence. He is a brother of Water Superintendent J. T. Brown.

Mrs. Sabria Hopper, who has been critically ill at the residence of T. B. Swearingen, for the past month, is improving slowly. She is 89 years of age and does not gain strength rapidly.

A. P. Noblett, editor and proprietor of the Freewater Times, is in the city today on business. He says there is a general sentiment strongly in favor of the regular train from Walla Walla to Pendleton, once a week, and that the people of Freewater would much rather trade in Pendleton than in Walla Walla. Most of the trading is done with home merchants, but what outside trading is done, would preferably come to the county seat.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Wife Alleges Repeated Desertion and Other Provocation.

Matilda Hatch has begun action in the state circuit court against Gardner Hatch for divorce and the custody of her minor son. The Hatches were married in Hardin county, Ohio, December 25, 1882.

Eight years ago the wife alleges her husband abandoned her, but she afterwards forgave him and they again lived together for a few months, when the defendant a second time left, taking with him the proceeds of the sale of their household goods, and leaving the wife and child destitute. The plaintiff also alleges that her husband accused her of unlawful intercourse with other men. She makes the allegation that Gardner Hatch has a child by another woman.

At one time, while the Hatches were en route to Oregon from Wisconsin, the wife declares her husband threatened to leave her and her child to starve by the roadside.

Beautiful Christmas Window.

Winslow Brothers have prepared a beautiful Xmas window in their jewelry store on Main street. The window is decked with holly and in the center is suspended a large Christmas bell, almost filling the entire window space. It gives an attractive appearance to the store and is admired by all passers.

Lost & Finger.

Elmer E. Turner, the well known drayman, in unloading a heavy barrel from his wagon this afternoon, mashed the little finger on his right hand so badly that it had to be amputated near the hand. It is doing nicely this evening.

Receipts of Recorder's Office.

The county recorder reports business of his office for the past quarter as follows: September, $276.25; October, $293; November, $330. November's receipts are the heaviest in many months.—Union Republican.

The population of the earth doubles itself in 260 years.

WHEAT IS SAVED.

Rains Have Made $1,000,000 for Umatilla County.

"The rains of the past three days have saved $1,000,000 for Umatilla county, in rescuing the wheat crop from what seemed a certain doom."

"I never saw as close a call for the wheat crop as has been experienced in this county in the past month. The ground was so dry that a great deal of the early-sown wheat had barely sprouted and was in just the right stage to be killed by a hard freeze."

"The amount sown in the early fall was much less than usual, and had that been killed, there would have been a great shortage next year. As it is now, the crop has a good prospect even if no more rain comes, which is hardly probable."

As It Is in Grant.

Skating has been at its best during the week, and many merry parties from John Day and Canyon have been down to the pond, making their skates ring over the ice smooth as glass.—John Day News.

The musical farce comedy, "Grimes' Cellar Door," which comes to the Frazier tomorrow night is the first popular priced musical show for a long while, and will be well worth the prices charged—25c, 50c and 75c. Old Grimes is dead and seen no more. At the Frazier you'll see his "Cellar Door."

The rains of the past two days have reached over the entire wheat belt, and farmers declare that fully one-half of Umatilla county's crop has been saved by this timely shower. Reports from every section of the county say that good rains have fallen since Friday night.

Three loads of Christmas trees were brought to town today from Upper McKay, a distance of 27 miles. All the stores are preparing to have elaborate decorations. More holly is in evidence this year than ever before.

Dr. Heritage, one of the ablest singers of the United States, will give a song recital at the Thompson street M. E. church, Tuesday, evening, December 13, under the auspices of the Epworth League. Admission 50c.

Reports from Helix and Warren station say that the rain was general in those districts and was much appreciated by farmers. If it does not rain any more now, thousands of acres of wheat will be saved.

The regular annual city election was held at Helix today. At the time of going to press the result was not known.
